PRESENTED BY:

Leadership West Orange is a ‘hands on, out of the classroom’ program designed to educate future leaders of West Orange County by providing exposure to prominent businesses, economic initiatives, and behind-the-scenes look into critical issues and challenges facing the area. The smaller class size offers unique access opportunities and greater success for class bonding.

We will explore West Orange County one day per month for 8 months while focusing on a specific area of interest.

Team Building - An exciting group dynamic session which will challenge participants intellectually, emotionally and physically.

Economic Development - Learn about the economic history of West Orange County, and learn about current and future economic drivers in the community.

Tourism - As the current number one tourist destination in the World, get insight into what makes Central Florida tourism a booming industry.

Sports & Innovation - Triumphs with an exclusive look into the sports industry and its economic impact.

Environment - Experience first-hand the environmental issues and challenges that we face as a community and how we are overcoming them.

Civics & Government - Spend the day visiting elected and municipal leaders and experiencing their day to day challenges.

Healthcare - Spend the day touring components of the various Healthcare options in West Orange County and Central Florida.

Exploration – A day of exploring West Orange County in a fun, active exercise.

Leadership West Orange is a serious commitment of time and energy. Consistent attendance is critical for successfully completing and graduating from the program. Two absences are permitted.
